Youth

Highlight of the year was the number of young people whose lives have been significantly touched by Rotary. No fewer than 11 young citizens have been selected for or have participated in Rotary Student Exchange; Adventure in Citizenship (with a trip to Canberra); Apprenticeship Awards (with a trip to Geelong); Rotary Programme of Enrichment (RYPEN); The Siemens Science School (with a visit to Adelaide University) and Rotary Youth Leadership Award (RYLA) (with a week in Kangarooie).

Rotary Exchange Student

Gale Baker returned from her year in the Netherlands. Gale lived with three Rotary Host families in Castricum a city of 30,000 only a 20 minute from Amsterdam. The school had 1,300 students.

Hospital Carnival

This float was organised by the Community Committee using Rotarian Bill Cull's vehicle.

Rotary Programme of Enrichment

With assistance from Rotarian Dean Shakes, from the Millicent High School, three young ladies were selected to attend interviews conducted by P.P. President Jim Barton, President Elect Malcolm Wright and Bruce Clayson for selection to attend the RYPEN Programme held in Ballarat. Those selected were Melanie Bradley, Melanie Taylor and Tracy Rivett. On their return they spoke at a Club dinner meeting, explaining how they enjoyed and benefited from the experience.

Apprentice of the Year

Michael Hamilton a 4th year air conditioning and refrigeration technician apprenticed to Elec Air won the award. Michael spent a week in Geelong touring factories and was hosted by the Corio Rotary Club.
