

President Kevin Donaldson
1998-99

Follow Your Rotary Dream

President Reports

World President James Lacy's challenging theme was "Follow Your Dream" The portion that attracted my attention in his message was "The most important person in your Rotary club is you, the individual Rotarian, the person who ultimately makes things happen. Do not go where others have been, go where no one has been and leave a track for others to follow your Rotary Dream".

Pines Enduro

Rotarians Ron, Bob, Glen and Vaughan all ready to serve the spectators at the 1998 Pines Enduro located in the pine forest of Millicent.

Millicent High School Award

Rotarian Chris Skeer presenting The Rotary School Award for services to the school community to Heath Douglas accompanied by parents Trish and Clint Douglas.

Rotary Christmas Tree

Rotarians Ian Smith, Ren DeGaris and Mark Braes decorate the Rotary Christmas Tree at the Visitor Information Centre.

Pines Enduro 1998

Rotarians discuss the importance of this Fundraising Event for the financing of future projects planned by the Rotary Club.