60TH ANNIVERSARY DINNER @ MILLICENT COMMUNITY CLUB MAY 20TH 2017

-A lovely night thanks to the Committee of Chris S, John C, Max B, Ken H and other generous helpers in the planning and implementation stages.

-The Community Club catered very well and the guests were chuffed to be together in such a friendly setting. Spouses and Offspring of previous Millicent Presidents really enjoyed their 'catching-up'.

-Guests represented RCs of Hamilton, Casterton, Mt Gambier, Mt Gambier West and District 9780 as well as returning Rotarians from other Clubs.

-Millicent Lions and Lionesses were represented and John Drew responded on behalf of the District Council.

-Millicent PP Steve Hill and now DG for the Canberra/Bega District was the guest Speaker reflecting upon his time in Millicent and his journey over the ensuing decades in 5 clubs and varying District roles.

-Trevor Hutchesson and Robert Clyne assisted Chris Skeer with the presentation of the Presidents' Board so attractively manufactured by John Eldridge and Paul Gulbin.

Clockwise from Top: Crowd-Scape, AG Lorraine and Rosey, Steve Hill, Morello Magic, Tin and Loan with Glenice.

DINNER MEETING 25TH MAY 2017- GLENN BROWN: HEALTH ADVISORY COUNCIL

- Parliamentary Enquiry in relation to Health Services is due to release its outcomes.
- Hope to get some equipment from Royal Adelaide Hospital
- HAC has no responsibility for Budget or Provision of services
- Day Surgery remains strong in Millicent. This is facilitated by the fact that Mt Gambier do not want to get too involved with Day Surgery
- Capital Improvements still ongoing (Fire water $500k)
- Introduction of Locums to continue as using local Doctors is not really feasible
- The concerns that donated equipment was not kept at the Millicent Hospital but passed onto other locations is unproven. An audit by the local health group found that all donated items were accounted for .
- The Government Website “myagedcare.com.au” is worth a look!
(thanks to Max Blacketer for the notes and pic)
