‘SUKH’S INDUCTION’

Millicent RC Dinner Meeting 14th December 2017

Induction: Sukhchain Singh Dhaliwal:

PP John Chalmers formally introduced Sukh to Pres Rosey and the Club.

-Sukhchain grew up in a small village in India.

-Emigrated in 2007 where he met his wife Kamaljit in Melbourne.

-Spent some time in WA and then in 2014 came to Millicent to be a chef/manager and soon proprietor.

-Has been using his culinary skills to cater for contemporary Australian palates.

-Has won a number of MBCA annual Awards.

-Is an industrious, thoughtful and socially skilled person.

-Loves the game of cricket and has all-rounder skills

-Kamaljit and Sukh have 2 sons, Surkhab and Mehtab, who will be 5 and 2 yrs old next April.

-Sukh’s life as a restaurateur occupies him most evenings, but the Club and Sukh will regularly catch-up.

-Club Members present were joyful about Sukh accepting membership.

General Business:

-Eddie reported that “Lights Up” was a great success with ‘cashier and spruiking’ assistance from the Girl Guides: the $650 netted will be offered to the Guides. Perhaps ‘cheque presentation’ occur at R-Club Meeting 21st January even though the Bank Transfer may be this calendar-year. The “Lights Up’ venture may become the evening replacement-alternative to the Christmas Eve street-function.

-Nigel and Eddie attended the small planning meeting for the Geltwood Festival. There’s another meeting in January with focus on ‘areas’ for improvement. Club Rep is desired. Rosey thinks a multi-cultural input would be rejuvenating; but because of work she will have trouble attending morning meetings.

-Cancer Support Event on 21st January will include a range of activity. No power supply in that new-domain area; Eddie will attempt a shared solution with the organizers and other participants.-

-3 or 4 Millicent Rotary volunteers required on the 21st between 10am to 3pm.

-End of Year Night Bowls ‘wind-up’ is Wednesday 20th December; Rob Chambers wants some helpers.

-In the absence of the Bulletin attaching ‘email contact details’ of members (this was done to minimize scamming from our web-upload of the Bulletin), Max B would like a copy of Member Contact to be provided to Club Members.

-Raffle Books were distributed with invitation to sell/buy and/or have a stall in January in IGA precinct.

-JB-Mt Burr, MB-Beachport, KH-MHS, JE-North PS, PG-Newbery PS reported on their School Award positive experiences. Eddie suggested that at present the process of notification and prize attachment (vouchers, cash, transfers or cheque) is a bit too ad-hoc and a clearer more straightforward process is to be encouraged in the future.

- The ROTARY CHRISTMAS was very pleasant and the BONEHAM CHRISTMAS was also a success.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING:

Max Blacketer chaired the Officer Election

President for 2018-19: Phil Golding

Secretary “ “ : Nigel MacLennan

Treasurer “ “ : Eddie Hann

Rotary Foundation & International: ?

V-President 2018-19: Rob Chambers

Past President “ “ : Rosey Pounsett

Club Service Director : Rob Chambers

Community & Vocational : Ken Haines

Youth “ “ : Brian Haines

Discussion occurred regarding members being assigned to assist in particular Directorships and tasks.

For example, Eddie suggested that Tin Ta may assist him with Treasurer’s role, and John Eldridge indicated an interested in supporting Brian with the Youth Directorship. Many of our members could be allocated particular projects or tasks to oversee.....the first part of 2018 will help clarify these interests.

Reports:

-Eddie provided a Balance Sheet for this Calendar Year and talked about the ‘shape and particulars’ of the Administration and Project Accounts. The above average contributor this year was Millicent Show activity/income which was 25% up on previous years.

The major additional earners are the Pines Enduro and SE Field Days. Without RPAS in 2018 our income stream will be different.

Lights Up, White Ribbon Sausage Sizzles and Newbery Park 50th were our larger ‘small-catering activities’.

-An OHS operating-procedure checklist has been produced for the Chip Van

-Ken H reported back on the Bowel Scan project and incidence of detection.

-The Meeting ended with ‘Fine Master’ Tony massaging our collective imagination, stretching the truth and ‘stitching-up’ the gullible amongst our innocent membership.
